The Charter of this Company offers more favorathe Charter of this company and others, than any ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one eighth of the amount would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the embination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prosthe Company thus far, and for its nattering pros-pects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. MISCELLANEOUS READING.

FISH STORIES. Ever since the days of Jonah fish stories have been remarkably large; it seems "natural to the breed." We have fished up a "string" of them from "here and there," for the benefit of our readers. The first comes from the Richmond "Enquirer," that endorses the statement that on a recent occasi n a sturgeon was caught in the Rappahannock river weighing nine hundred pounds! From Maryland paper we learn that a gentleman who has lately been spending a few days on the Cibolo relates the following as authentic: A few evenings since a lad set a line out in the creek to catch a catfish, next morning he visited his line, when he found it too heavy for him. Obtaining aid, he brought his line to the bank, when, wonderful to relate, there was an eel and two large catfish on it, one weighing 25 and the other 231bs. This fish problem was thus solved: It seems the eel was first hung on the hook, then catfish number one coming along swallowed eel, who wouldn't stay swallowed, and slipped Mr. Cat's gills, stringing him on the line then catfish number two came along and likewise swallowed eel, who again escaped Jonahism by slipping through his gills, do-ing honor to the slippery reputation of his race. This is a true story, and can be testified to by responsible witnesses. From the Honolulu papers we obtain information of a strage fish caught by the natives while in pursuit of shrimp. It is of a dark color, about five inches long, two inches thick, and about four inches from the top of the fin on its back to the bottom of its belly. It has a remarkably large head, and four feet or claws, which enable it to creep on the sides of rocks with great ease. When placed in a pail of water it threw out quite a stream from under the fins on each side of its body, then took a circuit round the bucket by clinging to the sides, and walking apparently with great pride. The feet resemble omewhat the paws of a bear. The Rappahannock "Southerner" has recently seen a curiosity fished up by Mr. Alex. Leland, out of Carter's Creek. It consists of a portion of a common junk bottle, to which several ovsters had grown, and one, the largest and probably the most dissipated of the party had grown partly into the neck of the bottle, completely filling it up. Whether the oyster went into the bottle to get a drink, got tight, and could not get out. is not known, but certain it is, that himself and his companions seem "very much attached to the bottle .- Spirit of the Times. Col. King, of Gonzales county, in Texas, who is an equal enemy of hard money and grammar, having a proper contempt for both, and who lives, as he says, "down to the foot of navigation," near Gonzales, a little creek which runs dry in summer, recently delivered himself of the following emphatic remark: "Ef I owe a man an onjust debt, and I make him a lawless tender of a blank bill, and he infuses to incept it, but pursoos out a writ for to level on my property, ef I don't make a sacrament of him, I'll be d-d."
